

Position Title: Feed Controller
Location/Department: Atlanta Area
Reports To: Chief Administrative Officer/Managing Director-Feed Division

Position Summary:

This position is responsible for the day-to-day location accounting operations of the feed division of Al Dahra ACX, Inc., including the production of periodic financial reports, financial analysis, and the maintenance of the system of accounting records and feed division internal controls.

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for short monthly cycle close process
- Responsible for preparation of monthly feed financial reporting
- Responsible for maintenance and monitoring of contract and accounting systems
- Identify, evaluate and lead key initiatives such as business process redesign, cost savings initiatives and system development projects
- Maintain and reinforce an organizational structure and culture to effectively accomplish the division's goals and objectives
- Assess, improve and maintain a strong internal control structure
- Serve as the key contact for all feed related audits, prepare audit schedules, and drive successful outcomes for all audits
- Review or complete general ledger reconciliations
- Prepare or review statutory filings to local, state and federal agencies timely and accurately
- Adhere to US GAAP
- Maintain a comprehensive set of accounting policies and procedures
- Other duties as required

Recommended Qualifications:

- BA/BS in Accounting/Finance required; MBA and/or CPA candidates preferred
- 5 years accounting experience in a fast-paced environment with progressive advancement
- Strong financial accounting background preferred
- Experience in physical commodity related accounting is highly desirable including AR monitoring and collections
- Superior demonstrated PC skills (Excel, Access) is a must
- Strong ERP software experience required (JD Edwards, SAP, Oracle, Sage, etc.)
- Business analyst skillset including process flow documentation
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills required
- Exposure and experience with international trading terms and concepts such as:
 - Inco terms, letters of credit, export credit insurance, GAFTA, transfer pricing, etc.